 Alone in a Fisherman's Skiff: Rosemary ...An American woman

rows down the Nile. Rosemary Mahoney is a rower and sees no reason why she should not row down the Nile. But the role of women in Egypt - and the manner of men - do much to stop her. Finally, she is able to figure out how to get people to leave her alone enough to make the trip down a specific portion of the river. Down the Nile: Alone in a Fisherman's Skiff by Rosemary ... When Rosemary Mahoney, in 1998, took a solo trip down the Nile in a seven-foot rowboat, she discovered modern Egypt for herself. As a rower, she faced crocodiles and testy river currents; as a female, she confronted deeply-held beliefs about foreign women while cautiously remaining open to... Down the Nile: Alone in a Fisherman's Skiff by Rosemary ... Down the Nile: Alone in a Fisherman's Skiff is a 2007 travel memoir by American author Rosemary Mahoney. The book recounts Mahoney's attempt to row solo up the Nile River, in the face of many challenges, from the tough climate to the sexism of Egyptian boatmen, who cannot believe or accept that Mahoney wishes to row, much less do so alone.
