Let's Go 2003: Turkey Studio Fun International
 Dedicated police officer, ACP Gautam Dhaliwal, takes it upon himself to root out the MAF, a major Naxal organisation based in the remote village of Bhagatpur, Bihar, as part of the Central Government-backed, Operation India One. However, as his investigations progress, he unmasks the official façade of the model of development that he had set out to defend. He is shocked to learn about the ugly nexus of unscrupulous politicians, bureaucrats and businessmen feeding off the oppression of the underprivileged. Torn between his commitment to the Indian State and the sympathy he begins to feel for the distressed people of Bhagatpur, an agonised ACP Dhaliwal is forced to rethink his earlier views on the meaning of an individual's responsibility towards fellow countrymen.

 Planes, trains and automobiles! A remarkable picture book, full of all the things that travel through the air and across the land and sea. Your little one's vocabulary will grow fast with this attractive tabbed board book. Learn about everything that has wheels, wings and sails, from toys to construction vehicles. Packed with bright colorful photos of real-life vehicles, your toddlers will learn how to recognize all the things that move around them. Learning different names and terms is an exciting stimulation for early childhood language development. The reference book also introduces different types of travel and transportation so they will know what a boat or plane is before they take their first journey! The book has strong board pages made especially for young children. The chunky tabs, on the top or the side, are easy to grab to help with early motor control. Preschoolers will quickly recognize the picture on the tab, which will take them straight to the page with their favorite transportation. Each page is dedicated to a different type of moving thing, such as tractors and trucks, with easy-to-read labels so they can sound out the words with you. The interactive book encourages kids to count the cars, name the colors and answer questions about each mode of transport. A perfect, rounded early learning reading experience for babies and up. Let's Get Moving! • Bright, clear photographs of everything from cycles to digger trucks • Chunky tabbed pages to improve dexterity • Easy-to-read text with names and descriptions More from DK: Because toddlers are experiencing lots of things for the first time, we've made lots of My First tabbed board books! Look below for other great titles including My First Zoo, My First Busy Job, My First Farm and My First Town.

A killer mines the wilds of Canada for victims. On the case: police chief Reid Bennett, "one of the most interesting series whodunit heroes of the decade" (Chicago Sun-Times). When gold is found in the mountains of Canada, it brings a rush of prospectors, pilots, and men looking to get rich quick. It also brings a slew of dead bodies. That is when Reid Bennett, the lone cop of tiny Murphy's Harbour, gets called in to help. The dead body of geologist Jim Prudhomme is found mauled beyond recognition by a bear. Or is it? Bear attacks are more than rare in these parts, and the tracks do not add up. Is it murder instead? Things get complicated as witnesses cry foul and more bodies pile up, including the reappearance of someone already dead. Thankfully, Reid has the help of the local police chief out for one last big case. He is also joined by a beautiful motel keeper and by his faithful dog Sam. But with gold on the line, the danger might come too fast and furious for our four heroes.
